

Highlights of the Okanagan

September 8th, 2011 - 4 Days

Wine, fruit, honey, cheese, history and the Okanagan Lake are the highlights of this adventure. Tour a winery on the shores of Okanagan Lake, lunch in a historic hotel in Merritt, explore Kelowna's historic museums, enjoy a scenic tour of Okanagan Lake, learn about the fruit industry of the Okanagan and lunch and tour the famous Hat Creek Ranch.

Day 1 - Sept 8th: To Kelowna, BC (L)

- * Door to door pick ups.
- * The historic Coldwater Hotel in Merritt is a great way to start this tour with a group lunch and some time to get pictures of the "Walk of the Stars".
- * On the banks of the shores of Okanagan Lake you enjoy a tour and some wine sampling at the special pyramid winery, Summerhill.
- * Relax and be sure to walk along the shoreline of the lake and try one of the many restaurants close to your downtown hotel.

Day 2 - Sept 9th: Kelowna (B)

- * A group hot breakfast starts your day before exploring the downtown historic museums.
- * Hop aboard a two hour narrated tour of the Lake (don't forget your sunscreen!)
- * Enjoy the warm summer night with a walk in the Park next to your downtown hotel.

Day 3 - Sept 10th: Kelowna to Salmon Arm (B, L,D)

- * Group hot breakfast
- * Learn about the fruit industry on a hay ride through the orchards at Davidson Orchards Country Village. Enjoy another group lunch and there is fresh fruit available for purchase as well.
- * Stops at The Jammy and then Planet Bee for tours and samples of more of the Okanagan riches.
- * Armstrong Village cheese factory stop for some artisan cheese..... More sampling!
- * The Prestige Harbourfront Resort in Salmon Arm prepares a scrumptious dinner tonight as you enjoy their many amenities.

Day 4 - Sept 11th: Salmon Arm to home (B,L)

- * Hat Creek Ranch is your host for a guided tour and lunch. Interpreters in period clothing will take you on a tour of the 1860's roadhouse which catered to miners, pack train operators, stage coaches and wagon trains.
